

ST. PANCRAS

O, St. Pancras

Written for the Feast Day of St. Pancras; St. Pancras Roman Catholic Church, Glendale, NY

1. Come, ye faith-ful, come, pro-claim this truth and love and praise we bring!
2. Strick-en mar-tyr, laid in ar-mour, save our child-ren, save our health!
3. Who could thank this Bless-ed mar-tyr: Bless-ed Pan-cras, ho-ly one?
4. May our voic-es join in rais-ing gra-cious hon-or, love pro-longed!

Glo-rious, Bless-ed mar-tyr Pan-cras, of whose life we great-ly sing!*
In the midst of great temp-ta-tion, you re-sist-ed fame and wealth.
In whose life and death he taught us faith un-til our days are done.
In this joy-ous hymn of prais-ing, let us sing your name in song!

From a life of full self-giv-ing, you have lived to Gave your life for Christ's de-vo-tion, e-ven un-to Keep a stead-fast faith up-on us, keep a stead-fast
O, St. Pan-cras, live with-in us, may our loy-al serve the King!

death it-self!
vic-'try won!
faith be strong! A-men.

*Alternative text: "With whose name holds ev'rything"